The clerk of the senate returned the resolution requiring the armourer at Annapolis to deliver to captain William S. B. Cottman, of Worcester county, certain arms therein mentioned; endorsed, 'assented to with the proposed amendment;' which amendment was read the first, and by special order, the second time, and concurred in.

Also a bill, entitled, An act relating to the appointment of the commissioners of the tax for Somerset county, endorsed 'will pass.' And a bill, entitled, An act authorising the visitors of Frederick County School, to sell the Frederick county school-house, and the lot of land on which the same is situate, and to apply the money arising from the sale thereof, to the purchase of a lot more eligibly situated, and to erect thereon suitable buildings for a county-school, endorsed 'will pass with the proposed amendments;' which amendments were read the first, and by a special order, the second time, and severally concurred in.

Ordered, That the said resolution and bills be severally engrossed.

The house proceeded to consider the order of the day, in reference to the bill, reported by Mr. Yoe, entitled, An act to exempt the wearing apparel of deceased persons from appraisement and exposure to sale by executors and administrators; and on the second reading thereof,
